Precision. The best innovations. For more than 130 years, Vulcan has been recognized by chefs and restaurant operators around the world for its high-quality, energy efficient commercial cooking equipment, which consistently delivers impressive results. Vulcan Hart is one of the largest manufacturers of commercial kitchen equipment in the world, but this success did not come overnight. The production company Hart first began production of furnaces and other products in 1865. By 1890, it was founded Vulcan Gas Heating Company. The two merged in 1949 to create Vulcan Hart and the company continued to grow from there. Their worldwide distribution of gas and electric commercial cuisine partly because of their energy efficient products and their world-renowned durability. As a partner of Energy Star, Vulcan Hart has demonstrated a commitment to low-energy, high efficiency commercial kitchen equipment. Their product lines have proven to be good for the environment and cost-effective for their users. Energy Star's low-energy commercial kitchen equipment saves commercial kitchen money by significantly reducing electrical and gas bills so Vulcan Hart's partnership with Energy Star is crucial. The durability of Vulcan Hart fryers, stoves, steam stoves, ranges, mesh and charbroilers can be explained by the fact that consumers can maintain their Vulcan Hart commercial kitchen equipment with OEM parts. Using the original parts of the equipment manufacturer from Vulcan Hart, commercial kitchens give themselves more opportunities to keep their kitchens and works for years to come. Without trusted OEM spare parts, Vulcan Hart will not have a sterling reputation now with commercial kitchens around the world. Vulcan Hart commercial kitchen spare parts are the key to the long life cycle of these world-renowned fryers, stoves, griddles, ranges, steamers, and charbroilers. Commercial kitchens around the world trust and rely on OEM spare parts from Vulcan Hart for their specialized equipment. Page 2 5% OFF IS MONTH ONLY! 5% OF ALL PARTS OF WELBILT.
